

ASQ Presents!™

Introduction to ISO 9001:2015 Important Changes, Interpretations, and Transition Implications

A workshop sponsored by ASQ Section 1001, Grand Rapids, MI

Presented by

Don Brecken, ASQ Fellow, MBA, CMQ/OE, RABQSA QMS-BI

The Bluff Banquet and Conference Center

2035 28th Street SE Grand Rapids MI 49508

Thursday, June 25

8am – 12pm

Continental Breakfast Included

Pricing: $60 for members, and $75 for non-members

To register:

Members: <http://asq1001.org/nsup-sys.php?event=140>

Non-members: <http://asq1001.org/nsup-sys.php?event=141>

Workshop attendees will understand the important changes in the ISO 9001 standard and their implications related to transition. The new revision has significant changes and is scheduled to be published in September 2015. Any organization certified and/or using ISO 9001:2008 today will benefit from this workshop.

About the Presenter:

Don Brecken is a fellow of the American Society for Quality (ASQ), a past chair of ASQ Section 1001 (Grand Rapids), director for ASQ Region 10, examination chair for the Education Division of ASQ, and served on the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award Board of Examiners in '04, '05, and '07. He is an ASQ Certified Manager of Quality and Organizational Excellence (CMQ/OE) and RABQSA Certified Business Improvement Auditor (QMS-BI). Don currently serves on the ASQ National Board of Directors.